JAZZ: ITS ROOTS AND BLOSSOMS

To kick off KRAB's capital building campaign, the station is planning a three-day long extravaganza, JAZZ: ITS ROOTS AND BLOSSOMS, starting Friday, February 2 at 10:30 am and running through Sunday, February 4. Programs to be featured on the jazz line-up will explore the entire spectrum of jazz styles and artists. This programming event is designed to provide enjoyment for all listeners and an incentive for new members to join.

Most of the money resulting from the three-day fundraising event will be applied towards the construction of a permanent, state-of-the-art production center which will allow KRAB to provide quality public access radio programming and service. We have submitted a bid to the City of Seattle for the purchase of a building located in the central core of the city. In anticipation to a favorable response from the City, we are implementing various campaigns to raise the money needed to begin this construction phase which will include demolition of the building's interior spaces, code requirement construction, etc.

KRAB's proposed full service production center will provide the appropriate facilities for the diverse needs of the Pacific Northwest community and space for the production of high quality public access radio programming.

Stay tuned for JAZZ: ITS ROOTS AND BLOSSOMS. If anyone is interested in answering pledge phones for a couple of hours during any of these three days, please contact Doris at 325-5110.

We at KRAB would like to extend our gratitude to Rice Business Machines for lending the station a desperately-needed typewriter.

Somebody Else's Troubles

Some of you may have seen the announcement on Jan. 18 that Secretary of State Cyrus Vance will be in Seattle in late March to address the N.W. Regional Conference on the Emerging International Economic Order. Vance is scheduled to deliver a major speech concerning U.S. strategy towards the United Nations Committee on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) session scheduled for May of this year in Manila. The UNCTAD session will have critical importance for the future of relations between the U.S., Europe, Japan and the Third World.

KRAB is one of the many sponsors of the Seattle Conference, which will concern itself with the entire agenda of the New International Economic Order (NIEO) proposals now before the UN. The NIEO has been discussed often on the KRAB international news, and will be the subject of programs for the next two months on Somebody Else's Troubles, aired each Thursday night at 10:00pm. Tune in for background on the NIEO and on the upcoming conference, which is open to the public.

- John B. Smith

Eclipse Programming

February 26th will bring a strange and wonderful event to the skies of the Northwest (weather permitting). At 8:15am on that day the last total solar eclipse to occur over North America this century will take place. Being one of the most amazing sights nature has to offer, we at KRAB are honoring it with some special programming. On Wed., Thurs., and Fri. of the previous week, the Morning Readings (10:00am) will be devoted to Bryan Brewer's new book Eclipse. Mr. Brewer is a Seattleite who wrote this easily-read but highly informative book out of a desire to educate and fascinate the uninformed reader with this miraculous event. On Feb. 20, Aardvark to Zygote, KRAB's science news magazine, will devote the entire program to the study of the eclipse. Included will be information on what to expect, where the best observation points are, how to watch it safely, and an interview with Bryan Brewer.

We offer this programming in the hope that it will excite you as much as we are, and will inspire those of you who are able to be sure to witness this event.

Capt. Baltic's Bop Stop - 10th Anniversary

February 13th will mark the tenth anniversary of Capt. Baltic's Bop Stop. To celebrate this gala occasion, the Captain requests you to mail your requests for bebop artists, tunes or recordings to him. Any requests received on or before Feb. 9th will be aired if they can be found. Send requests to: Bop Stop, KRAB, 1406 Harvard Ave., Seattle WA 98122. Happy Birthday, Capt.

"In less than a week they will come. You wait and wait, and finally when their knock comes, you are not ready. You never will be. But no matter. You are to hurry, they tell you. Then others come, smiling, inquiring, offering to buy your furniture, your clothes, your home, and everything else you cannot carry. They offer almost nothing, but to argue is pointless and they know it.

"Your job was taken the week before. You understand as well as they that a little money is better than none. Perhaps the house you thought would always be yours will be for sale, after you return."

For 120,000 Americans, this nightmare was not imagined. It was the beginning of interment for citizens of Japanese ancestry, and it lasted three years, from 1942 to 1945.

February 19 is the 37th anniversary of the sending of these Americans to what amounted to concentration camps. KRAB commemorates this date with three special 30-minute programs focusing on what happened then--and what's happening now--to the Japanese in the Puget Sound region. Check the February 19 schedule.

11:00 SIRIUS
Andrew Hummel reads from Olaf Stapledon's Sirius, a novella about a dog with super-human mentality, an alien intelligence artificially induced who is not only superior to his own kind, but rejected by those with whom he has the most in common.

12:30 THE G.I. PARAKEET HOURS
Eclecticism till late, with Jim Anderson.

2 friday

6:00 EARLY MUSIC
Request Morning. After deciding what to play all week, Stu Witmer lets you do the work today. Call him at 325-5110 and tell him what to play next. BBC News at 7.

10:00 MORNING READING
Black Elk Speaks, the elegant and magnificent life story of a holy man of the Oglala Sioux as told to John Neihardt. Read by Kathy Bottoms.

10:30 KRABJAZZ
What a dilemma! Should you listen to Herb Levy's KRABJAZZ show, as you always do, or should you sleep in so you can hear more of the rest of the KRAB jazz marathon? Better listen to Herb, music is so unpopular you'll probably never hear it again.

3:00 TRAFF'S TRIP
A jazzical hodgepodge - bop vocalists, some of Gabe's dirty blues, Slim and Slam, Fats, plus assorted jazz, old and new.

6:00 ELLINGTON SPLINTERS
A program featuring Duke Ellington's sidemen (and sometimes the Duke himself) in small groups. With, perhaps, Cat Anderson, Ben Webster, Rex Stewart, Ray Nance, Paul Gonsalves, Clark Terry, Johnny Hodges, etc.

8:00 THE BOPTERIA
Bebop to now. Baltic with rebop, bebop, hard bop, funky bop and bird bop. Early 40's thru late 60's and beyond.

Coleman Hawkins, Dinah Washington, Bud Powell, Lambert, Hendricks and Ross, all this and more for a mere $25 subscription. With Traff, Julie Harris and Jeff Follette.

1:00 MOUTH MUSIC
Jazz with words. Words above, around, between and below jazz. With Ken Nordine, Langston Hughes, Lord Buckley, Jean Shepherd, Charles Mingus and others.

3:00 WHEN ENTERTAINERS WERE ARTISTS
The music of such musicians as Herbie Hancock, Freddie Hubbard, Stan Getz and others before they sold their souls to the recording industry.

6:00 BLOSSOM DEARIE/BOB DOROUGH
Two unique singers: light, polite, ingenious and hip. Both began in the 40's, Dearie with big bands such as Woody Herman and Alvino Ray; Dorough usually itinerantly while serving as pianist and music director of various groups. Eventually their paths crossed (early 50's) in Paris, where they both joined the vocal group "Blue Stars." Each gets their chance to sing today, to you.

7:30 NEW ORLEANS TO KANSAS CITY AND POINTS OUT
A program tracing the emergence of jazz as it spread and evolved across the country and the world. The music of King Oliver, Jimmy Noone, Bessie Smith, Sidney Bechet, Earl Hines, Lester Young and some of the history which accompanied these and other pioneer musicians.

12:00 THE LATE, LATE SHOW
Clifford Brown, Eric Dolphy, Scott LaFaro, Fats Navarro. Music of the Dead with the Late Jim Anderson and friends.

4 sunday
